Thanks

We would like to thank Ed Sabey, Lee and Sandi Probst, Debra Jacobsen, and Wayne Cummings for buying our lambs at the Junior Livestock Sale last Saturday.

We would also like to thank everyone who worked on the sale for their support in making it a successful event again this year.

Ashley and Travis Maak

Michael Wamick
Heather, Debbie, and

We would like to extend a special thank you to the buyers of our Sale this year. Special thanks to Peggy Probst, owners of the Mountainlands One Stop, and my good friends, Mandy and Robbie Jo, for buying my steer at the Heber Valley Junior Livestock Sale.

I would like to thank Pete and Sammie Horton Peggy Probst, owners of the Mountainlands One Stop, and my good friends, Mandy and Robbie Jo, for buying my steer at the Heber Valley Junior Livestock Sale.

Shawn Sweat
my Reserve Champion Swine.

I would like to thank all those who supported the Junior Livestock Sale this year. Special thanks to Accuracy Machining for buying our swine and to Utah Livestock Auction and Circle V Meats for buying my Reserve Champion Swine.

Jason Sweat
my swine.

I would like to thank Jerry Davis and Heber Light and Power for their generous purchase of my lambs at the County Fair Stock Auction. Your support of my 4-H project is truly appreciated, and I would also like to thank my dad.

James Blair

We would like to thank the following for supporting us at this year's Junior Livestock Show: Jay and Donna Buchler, Jerry Davis Construction, Accuracy Machining, Tammy Buehler, Jamie Buehler, Kristy Buehler, Mandy McNeill, and Bruce and Gerry Maak for buying my other lamb and their much appreciated support for other members, also. Our support from business and families continues to grow each year and this keeps our youth growing in confidence and experience from their projects. Thanks so much!

I would like to thank Pete and Peggy Probst at Mountainland One Stop for their support with my 4-H lamb.

Cody Bebers
Thanks to Wayne Foy and Lloyd Brothers for their support at the beef sale.

BEARD First Annual GROWING

On Saturday, Aug. 18, Jensen/Woodbury will perform their last concert for the summer. The classical guitar duo will be performing the works of Gnani, Machado, Albeniz, Pizzolla, and Sor.

They will be performing at the Visitor's Center in Midway, near The Homestead. Admission is $5 per person at the door. The concert is free and everyone is welcome.

On Friday, Aug. 17, Jeff Brewen, from Utah Trails Bicycle Expeditions, Inc., will be at the State Park to talk about mountain bike riding opportunities in the area. Mountain bike riding has been one of the fastest growing recreational activities in recent years. The program begins at 8 p.m. The amphitheater is located above the pavilion in the campground. Admission is free and everyone is welcome.

Wasatch Mountain State Park Campfire Program Continues

On Friday, Aug. 17, Jeff Brewen, from Utah Trails Bicycle Expeditions, Inc., will be at the State Park to talk about mountain bike riding opportunities in the area. Mountain bike riding has been one of the fastest growing recreational activities in recent years. The program begins at 8 p.m. The amphitheater is located above the pavilion in the campground. To all of you who worked so hard to make our County Fair Junior Livestock Show and Sale a success, a big thank you! Thank you also to all of you who came out and supported the youth at the show and sale. We truly appreciate you. Thank you to my Grand Champion Hog and to Hitch Construction for buying my other Blue Ribbon Hog. I had a great time at this fair and learned a lot. A special thanks to my big brother, Jayson for his help and encouragement.

Jeremiah Knight

Greg and Janet McPhie

I would like to thank everyone who came out and supported the Junior Livestock Show and Sale. I would especially like to thank Keith's Feed and Farm Supply and Allen Probst for purchasing my Market Steers.
